In 2015, the cost of producing a MW was 600,000 yuan. By 2020, the cost has dropped down to 225,000 yuan per MW, directly driving the investment cost of the entire system from 7.6 yuan per watt to 4 yuan in 4 years. During this time, the price of modules has also dropped from 3.3 yuan per watt to 1.57 per watt.

A 200 watt solar panel can produce an average of 10 - 12 amps of electricity per hour. Assuming 6 hours of sunlight during the day, the current in a 24 hour period is 60 - 70 amp hours. In the middle of winter or on a cloudy day, you might get 3 hours of peak sunlight. This equates to an output of 30 - 40 amp hours.

For example, a 100-watt flexible solar panel is often used on boats, while 200-300-watt products are used on RVs or off-grid shacks. To meet their solar power needs, users often connect several solar panels to get the combined wattage they want. The solar panel wattage is directly proportional to its cost.
